

Acts Legacy Foundation Welcomes New Board Member

Acts is pleased to announce the appointment of Tom Brod to the Acts Legacy Foundation Board of Directors. Tom brings a wealth of experience and expertise in strategic and financial consulting for continuing care retirement communities, which will be invaluable to our organization.

Tom currently serves as the Senior Managing Director of Strategy & Finance at OnePoint Partners in Boston, Massachusetts, where he provides strategic and financial advisory services for retirement communities across the country. His extensive background includes senior leadership roles at Lifespace Communities, North Shores Consulting Inc., Erickson Retirement Communities, Ziegler, Coventry Resources, Ernst & Young, and Charlestown Retirement Community.

In addition to his professional accomplishments, Tom has demonstrated a strong commitment to community and church activities, serving in various leadership roles at Clare Oaks retirement community, Grace Presbyterian Church of the North Shore, Columbia Presbyterian Church, and Southern Africa Reformed Mission. His wife Kathryn Brod currently serves on the Acts board of directors.

Tom's insight and leadership will contribute to our efforts in supporting Acts communities and improving the lives of residents.
