Discover the Lifestyle at Fairhaven - Our Sykesville, MD Retirement Community

Set on a beautiful and scenic 300-acre wooded property in Sykesville, MD, Fairhaven has been a pillar in the community for over 35 years. Fairhaven began through a generous donation of land by Frank and Viola Beasman, the owners of Fairhaven Farms. As you hike and walk the wooded nature and campus trails, you'll see why this Sykesville, MD senior living community is designated as a bird sanctuary by the Maryland Ornithological Society. The campus's location is convenient to both downtown Baltimore and historic Washington, D.C. If the larger cities don't appeal to you, Fairhaven is just minutes from historic downtown Sykesville and Ellicott City, which offer local shopping and restaurants. Sykesville was even a past winner of Budget Travel Magazine's "Coolest Small Town!"

Secure, recognized, and accredited

Fairhaven is accredited by the CARF International. This is the highest accreditation a continuing care facility can earn.
